ISTE CHAPTER | SAL organized this elocution competition named “YOUTH ECHOES” to provide a platform for all students to express their views and opinions on contemporary social and political issues, fostering critical thinking, research and effective communication skills. Youth Echoes is an elocution competition designed to provide students with a dynamic platform to voice their views on contemporary social and political issues. By offering a space for young individuals to articulate their thoughts, the competition fosters critical thinking and helps students develop their research and communication skills. This event encourages participants to engage deeply with current affairs, enabling them to form well-reasoned opinions on a range of important topics, from societal challenges to political ideologies.

Objective:

The main objectives of this elocution competition are as follows:

1. Enhance Critical Thinking: Encourage students to engage with contemporary social and political issues, fostering analytical thinking.
2. Develop Communication Skills: Provide a platform for students to improve their public speaking and persuasive communication abilities.
3. Promote Research and Awareness: Inspire students to research and deepen their understanding of current global and societal challenges.
4. Encourage Active Participation: Empower students to voice their opinions and actively engage in discussions on important issues.
5. Foster Leadership Qualities: Equip students with skills to lead and contribute effectively in future societal and political dialogues.
